About

Legacy is a medium-energy dog who strikes the perfect balance between playtime and relaxation. She loves going on walks, playing with her toys, and ending the day snuggled up with her favorite people. Legacy's came to us from a high-kill shelter after another rescue abandoned her during her freedom drive. We took her in with open arms and have shown her what it means to be loved unconditionally! She does well with kids 12 and up and enjoys the company of male dogs. If you're looking for a fun and affectionate companion, Legacy might be the perfect addition to your home!
