About

Phia is a total cuddle bug with a heart full of love. At around 7 years old, she's happily past the puppy stage and enjoys a calmer, more relaxed lifestyle. She loves strolling around the yard at her own pace, taking in all the sights and smells, and soaking up the moment. Phia truly shines when she's getting attention—she adores being loved on and never turns down affection. And honestly, with a face like hers, it's impossible to say no!
