About

■ This handsome boy arrived as a stray and he was not doing the best. He was refusing to eat and had quite a few fleas. But after a lot of much needed TLC, we are happy to report that he is an entirely different boy now and eating and showing up his playful spunky side! His next steps are getting him into a home, where he can finish his healing process! Can you be that home for him? He loves his people and just wants all the love you're willing to give! Litter box trained and ready to be your next best friend! ■■
