About

Meet Royce! When he came to us, he was around 3 years old, but he has been in our care for almost 2 years now. Royce is a really good boy. He weighs around 70 lbs but is a huge baby, one who does little bunny hops and snuggles like the baby boy he is. We found him on a euthanasia list at a local kill shelter where he had a terrible ear infection and allergies. His health issues are all cleared up now and he has just been patiently waiting and waiting for a family to love him. He loves all people and would make the perfect family dog. He really really likes playfully laid back female dogs to be his friend. His foster said: "Royce is doing great! He is potty trained, food motivated, a good kisser, and a huge people lover. Royce has done well on our walks and the top of the stairs/baby gate area. Royce seems to prefer our older dog at this point - rocking a chill vibe. Our younger is full on crazy and would play 24/7...he's not as comfortable there. It's seems playing is a concept he wasn't used to."
